The College of Natural Sciences – 2017-2018 Research Review Council

The CNS Research Review Council are experienced scientists, knowledgeable about and confident in particular funding mechanisms. Council members serve as both advisors to the college and research mentors to their colleagues. This select group will serve during 2017-2018 and include:

Lynn Adler, Professor, Biology
Kathleen Arcaro, Professor, Veterinary and Animal Sciences
Daniela Calzetti, Professor, Astronomy
Peter Chien, Associate Professor, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
Michelle DaCosta, Associate Professor, Stockbridge School of Agriculture
Anthony Dinsmore, Professor, Physics
Om Parkash Dhankher, Associate Professor, Agriculture Biotechnology, Stockbridge School of Agriculture
Patrick Flaherty*, Assistant Professor and CNS Research Fellow, Mathematics and Statistics
Ryan Hayward, Professor, Polymer Science
Elizabeth Harvey, Professor, Psychological and Brain Sciences
Li-Jun Ma, Professor, Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
Michele Markstein*, Assistant Professor and CNS Research Fellow, Biology
Michael Maroney, Professor, Chemistry
Craig Martin, Professor, Chemistry
Lisa Minter*, Associate Professor and CNS Research Fellow, Veterinary and Animal Sciences
Barbara Osborne, Professor, Veterinary and Animal Sciences
Yeonhwa Park, F.J. Francis Endowed Chair and Professor
Maureen Perry-Jenkins, Professor, Psychological and Brain Sciences
Dhandapani Venkataraman*, Professor and CNS Research Fellow, Chemistry and Research Fellow
Pablo Visconti, Professor, Veterinary and Animal Sciences
Elsbeth Walker, Gilgut Professor Plant Biology, Biology

*CNS Research Fellows were chosen to participate in a year-long Individual Proposal Development program with an experienced grant writing consultant, Peg Atkisson, of Grant Writers’ Seminars and Workshops, and are now serving on the RRC to share best practices from that experience.